

HOW DO I BECOME A PLANNER?

DISCOVER THE PATH TO PLANNING

TOP 5 REASONS FOR BECOMING A PLANNER

Planners create and design spaces and places for the benefit of the community to ensure economic growth, sustainability, social equity and strong communities.

1 Planning is a diverse career.

2 Planning is a diverse career spanning environment, transport, economic, social, health, sport and recreation, coastal, urban and regional planning and planning law with employment opportunities in the government and private sectors.

3 Planning is an international career. Australian qualifications are recognised and valued across the world and many planners find exciting work overseas.

4 It's a dynamic, creative and collaborative career with a broad range of work opportunities.

5 There's a huge demand for planners, so there is plenty of well paid work.

www.planning4success.com.au

